

Subject: Important Instruction and Student Services Updates and Questions Answered – June 16, 2021
Date: Wednesday, June 16, 2021 4:18:14 PM

Greetings.

I appreciate that you read this weekly update, and the College wants to make sure that we are providing you the information you need in the most effective way possible. By June 27, please complete this short survey [Link is redacted for security purposes and survey accuracy.] and tell us how you want to hear from us.

Our goal is to use YOUR feedback to improve how we communicate with you so you don't miss important information or feel overloaded.

Please remember, if you miss a weekly email, you can find it on our coronavirus webpage.

As you have come to expect, following are the commonly asked questions and our responses to them. Please note that some of these responses are tentative and subject to change.

If you have additional questions and you do not see the answers on the website, please submit the online form located on the website. Please see the webpage section called "Information for Students."

We will continue to update you regularly via email and the aforementioned website.

Thank you!

John J. "Ski" Sygielski, MBA, Ed.D.
President & CEO
HACC, Central Pennsylvania's Community College

Do you have any advice for how I can learn good money management habits?

Many HACC students use social media platforms to learn new things, make plans and stay in touch. According to PSECU, approaching your finances in a similar way as you would a few online networks can lead to good money management habits. For more information, please visit <http://bit.ly/35hQbW1>.

PSECU's Financial Education Center at HACC is available for virtual office hours by phone or Zoom. Please contact Jennifer Nicrone, PSECU community manager, at jnicrone@psecu.com to schedule an appointment.

Please do not include personal information (such as your bank account number and social security number) in your email.
