Date: Thursday, June 4, 2020 3:35:04 PM

Greetings.

At the end of this trying week, I hope you can find some comfort in knowing that YOUR HACC community is a place of support for everyone. Although most of us only see one another via Zoom right now, the bonds we share remain strong. It's important to reach out to your peers and ask how they are doing at this time, but please remember to do this on a regular basis – not only in the midst of multiple ongoing crises. Empathy is key to who we are as a community – let's continue to demonstrate it as part of our core values.

As you have come to expect, following are the commonly asked questions and our responses to them. Please note that some of these responses are tentative and subject to change.

If you have additional questions and you do not see the answers on the website, please submit the online form located on the website. Please see the webpage section called "Information for Students."

We will continue to update you regularly via email and the aforementioned website.

Thank you!

John J. "Ski" Sygielski, MBA, Ed.D.

Are we going to be back on campus for classes in fall?

The College's task force is finalizing its recommendations for fall 2020 and will share those with the president's Cabinet next week. Decisions about fall 2020 will be reported to the College community by June 15.
